

SKATING CAMP

Looking for that edge? Well, look no further! This one-of-a-kind camp introduces aspiring skaters to an upbeat positive and confidence building experience that is designed to lift their skating to the next level. This camp is to help achieve skating goals, dream bigger and remind each skater why they love to skate!

This camp will offer on-ice training of jumps, spins, footwork & edges and off-ice training in conditioning, off-ice jumps and yoga & pilates.

There will be a Parents-Only Meeting and Coaches Educational Time.

This event is open to ALL LEVELS of figure skaters, beginner (BS 5) through Senior level and there will be an Adult tier.

Space is limited, register today! Skaters will be put into tiers based on their Jump Ability/Test Level. A detailed schedule will be emailed to each camp skater by Monday, July 15th.

WHO IS PATRICK O'NEIL

Patrick has over twenty years of coaching experience and has had the privilege of working with athletes of all ages and abilities, from the grassroots through national level. He holds his B.A. in Political Science and Public Administration from The American University, Washington, D.C. and his Masters in Social Work from Syracuse University.

With U.S. Figure Skating, he holds his gold medal in Freestyle and Dance and is a Technical Specialist for the organization. Patrick is the current Membership Chair and has actively participated in numerous committees including the Membership Committee, Parent Committee, Grievance Committee, and the SafeSport Committee. He thoroughly enjoys conducting seminars with coaches on the "hows" and "whys" of teaching. With the Professional Skaters Association, Patrick has attained his Mater Ratings in Freestyle and Moves in the Field and dedicates his time as a ratings examiner for the PSA in those two disciplines. He is a current board member, Ratings Prep faculty, member of the Committee on Professional Standards, member of the National Education Committee and Chairs the Seminars/Webinars Committee.
